Painting the Shoreline in Pastel:
Morning & Evening

4-8 January, 2021 – 9.30-12.30pm

Tutor: Fiona Buchanan

You Need to Supply:

Reference images I will provide some images. Please also bring images of shorelines that you are inspired to paint. Two or three different ones. Print them to A4 if possible. These should be your own photos or those of family and friends. Otherwise if you look at royalty free sights or stock photos on the internet. Some will require a small payment to download them.

Easel and board:

Some table easels and boards will be supplied.

If you have a table easel or a stand up easel please feel free to bring these.

Soft Pastels

I recommend a basic set of Mungyo set of 36 or 48 half sticks

Other ocean colours and colours you love would also be useful.

Colours in turquoise in a variety of tones, lilac and blue greys and deep blues and greens.

Also earth tones for sand including umber and ochres. And colours that will suit evening skies.

Art Spectrum or Rembrandt are good as are Mount Vision.

Pastel pencils You will need at least 2 pastel pencils. Pitt are good. A white and a dark blue eg Pitt #181 or similar and other ocean colours if you have them Please bring whatever pastels and pastel pencils that you have.

Watercolours: If you do have watercolours please bring these. Student watercolour sets are fine.

Brushes: Please bring flat brushes 1cm and 2cm are good. You can buy sets of prolon brushes quite cheaply and these are fine.

Masking tape, ruler, sharpener, cloth

Small to medium soft round bristle brush (or similar) for brushing out pastel

Colourfix pastel paper will be available from the tutor at cost price during the workshop. If you have sanded paper you would like to bring please feel free.

We will be using paper in white and in light or dark blue to suit the subject.

Your Tutor will Supply:

Colourfix paper 2 large sheets per student $17

Assorted other paper $6 (These prices are approximate I will have a variety of paper available each at cost price and a card reader for eftpos payments if needed)

I will bring some boards at $3 each

Costs Payable to Tutor:

As detailed above, payable on first day of course
